Erin Hanson Art Gallery Hosts Grand Opening Event

Acclaimed Impressionist Painter Opens Art Gallery in Oregon Wine Country

McMinnville, OR: Contemporary impressionist Erin Hanson has relocated her flagship gallery and personal art studio to McMinnville, Oregon. The artist has taken over a new 18,000-square foot building just minutes from the heart of town. Renovations are complete and preparations are underway for a grand opening on August 14th, 2021. All are invited to enjoy Erin Hanson's colorful and impressionistic oil paintings in a fine art gallery setting. Complimentary refreshments and wine by Elizabeth Chambers Cellar will be served.

The grand opening will take place on Saturday, August 14th from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM at the new gallery location on 1805 NE Colvin Ct, McMinnville, OR 97128.

Hanson's "open impressionism" blends modern expressionism and classic impressionism to capture the movement and beauty of natural spaces. This style has grown into an art movement and is studied by artists and students all over the world. Erin Hanson plans to bring her singular style to landscape paintings displaying the vibrance of the Pacific Northwest.

About Erin Hanson: A life-long painter, Hanson began her study of oils as a young child. Her passion for natural beauty can be seen in her work as she transforms both familiar and rare vistas into stunning interpretations of bold color, playful rhythms, and raw emotional impact. Her frequent forays into National Parks and other recesses of nature include backpacking expeditions, rock climbing, and photo safaris. Hanson's unique painting style has become known as Open Impressionism, with hundreds of collectors eagerly anticipating her work. As an iconic, driving force in the rebirth of contemporary impressionism, Hanson is quickly being recognized as a prolific, modern master.
